

Division of Developmental Disabilities

Is someone in your home developmentally disabled?

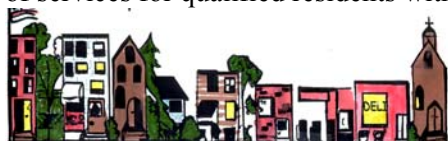

Contact the Division of Developmental Disabilities

* * * * *

DDD may be able to help you

The Division of Developmental Disabilities, part of the New Jersey Department of Human Services, has a wide range of services for qualified residents with developmental disabilities and their families.

You may qualify for DDD services

- if you have any of these conditions: Mental retardation Epilepsy Spina bifida
Cerebral palsy Autism Neurological impairment
- if this condition was discovered before age 22 and is expected to be permanent; and
- if you have difficulty in at least three of these areas:
Self-care Making decisions Living independently
Learning Earning a living
Mobility Communicating

DDD may be able to help you and your family

- Do you want to join the work force and get job coaching on site? We can help people find employment.
- Are you interested in learning vocational and personal skills and being more independent? We can offer training.
- Could you use a break from your caregiving duties for a few hours or even several days? We can provide respite.
- Are there items or services that would help you and your family? We can give cash subsidies.
- Do you need other assistance such as guardianship, therapy or recreation? We have a wide range of supports.
- Is living at home a problem? We can offer in-home-support or, if necessary, seek another living arrangement.

To apply for services from DDD

Call the Intake Unit of the DDD Office serving your county. Staff will meet with you to determine if you qualify for DDD. If so, we'll assign a case manager to discuss services available in your area and help you to select the right ones.

Essex	973/693-5080	Camden and Burlington	856/614-3400
Somerset and Union	973/324-2000	Morris, Sussex and Warren	973/927-2600
Monmouth and Ocean	732/863-4500	Hunterdon, Mercer and Middlesex	609/292-4500
Bergen, Hudson and Passaic	973/977-4004	Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester and Salem	609/561-5070

State of New Jersey

James E. McGreevey, Governor

Department of Human Services (DHS) * Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD)